

Vision

VISION 2026: PRIM&R envisions a world in which all stakeholders in the research enterprise share an understanding of and commitment to the centrality of ethics to advancing science and medicine, as exemplified through research policies and practices that align with the highest ethical standards in research.

Strategic Priorities

I

Leading provider of high quality, relevant, and innovative education in research ethics/ oversight field

II

Developer of knowledge, resources, and services that fill gaps and address barriers to advancing ethical research

III

Thought leader and change agent influencing researchers, oversight committees, regulators, policymakers, and the public

IV

Strong, nimble, sustainable organization with the infrastructure and capacity needed to achieve vision and implement innovative programming

Cross-cutting Themes

DIVERSITY

LEADERSHIP DEVELOPMENT

ORGANIZATIONAL VISIBILITY

GLOBAL RELEVANCE

STRATEGIC PARTNERSHIPS